Step I

This function is only available with a login.

Before you register athletes for a tournament, they must be known. If your athletes are known, they can be registered for several tournaments without having to be registered again.

Other users of the site cannot see or edit their athletes.

The item "ENTER ATHLETES" allows you to enter your athletes. This means that they are only known, but they are not yet taking part in a tournament.

Best Practice

Only one account per club

If several people create an account for a club and register athletes independently of each other, the entries for the tournament will be viewed as independent clubs. This at least has an impact on the team ranking.

These clubs cannot be merged even during post-processing. Because the admin cannot decide which "clubs" can be merged and which cannot.
